On the 18th August, 1961, the Minister of Law moved a fresh motion in substitution for reference of the Bill to a Joint Committee of the Houses which was adopted on the same day.

3. The Rajya Sabha discussed the motion on the 23rd and 24th August and 1st September, 1961 and concurred in the said motion on the 1st September, 1961.

4. The message from the Rajya Sabha was read out to the Lok Sabha on the 4th September, 1961.

5. The Committee held five sittings in all.

6. The first sitting of the Committee was held on the 4th September, 1961, to draw up a programme of work. The Committee at this sitting also decided to issue a press communique advising public bodies, associations and individuals desirous of presenting their suggestions or views in respect of the Bill to send written memoranda thereon.

7. No memorandum on the Bill was received by the Committee.

8. The Committee considered the Bill clause by clause at their second, third and fourth sittings held on the 1st, 2nd and 25th November, 1961, respectively.

9. The Report of the Committee was to be presented by the first day of the Fifteenth Session i.e. on the 20th November, 1961. As this could not be done, the Committee requested for extension of time on the 20th November, 1961, which was granted upto the 30th November, 1961.

10. The Committee considered and adopted the Report on the 29th November, 1961.

*Published in Part II, Section 2 of the Gazette of India Extraordinary, dated the 7th August, 1961.

11. The observations of the Committee with regard to the principal changes proposed in the Bill are detailed in the succeeding paragraphs.

12. Clause 2(1) sub-clause (a).—The Committee feel that the Central Government should be empowered to add by issue of a notification to the list of commonwealth countries specified in the First Schedule as and when it becomes necessary to do so, otherwise the Act will have to be amended by Parliament, for that purpose.

(2) sub-clause (c).—The Committee consider that there should be no separate list of offences with regard to the commonwealth countries to which Chapter III applies and that the list applicable to foreign States should apply also to the commonwealth countries.

(3) sub-clause (d).—The amendment made in this sub-clause is of a drafting nature.

The clause has been amended accordingly.

13. Clause 3(1) sub-clause (1).—The amendment made in this sub-clause is of a drafting nature and is consequential upon the adoption of new clause 32.

(2) sub-clause (4).—Sub-clause (4) has been omitted as being unnecessary in view of clause 35.

14. (original clause 4).—The clause has been re-numbered as clause 31.

15. Clause 4 (original clause 5).—The amendment made in the clause is of a drafting nature.

16. Clause 8 (original clause 9).—The Committee are of the view that the warrant issued under this clause for the surrender of a fugitive criminal should also specify the person to whom the fugitive criminal is to be delivered.

The clause has been amended accordingly.

17. Clause 9 (original clause 10).—The Committee have omitted in sub-clause (1) the words “or complaint” so as to remove the possibility of an action being taken on filing of a mere private complaint.

The amendment made in sub-clause (2) is consequential.

18. Clause 12 (original clause 13).—The amendments made in the clause are of a clarificatory or drafting nature. Sub-clause (3) has been omitted as being unnecessary in view of clause 35.

19. Clause 16 (original clause 17).—The amendments made in this clause are of drafting nature.

20. Clause 17 (original clause 18).—The Committee feel that a magistrate should be empowered under this clause to hear evidence in order to determine whether the offence committed is an extradition offence and also whether the warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive has been duly authenticated. Power is also conferred on the magistrate to release the fugitive criminal on bail if he is not satisfied on either of the two aforesaid points.

The Committee are also of the opinion that written submissions, if any, made by a fugitive criminal to the magistrate, should be forwarded to the Central Government.

The clause has been revised accordingly.

21. Clause 18 (original clause 19).—The clause has been amended for the same reasons as are adduced in regard to clause 8 (original clause 9).

22. Clause 23 (original clause 24).—The Committee are of the view that the scope of this clause should be widened to cover offences committed in the air.

The clause has been amended accordingly.

23. Clause 24 (original clause 25).—The Committee consider that a period of three months' detention after which a fugitive criminal, awaiting his return to another State, is entitled to move a High Court for his discharge, is excessive and should be reduced to two months.

The clause has been amended accordingly.

The other change made in the clause is of a drafting nature.

24. The Committee in this regard recommend to the Government that in the extradition treaties that might be entered into by it, a provision should be made that if a surrendered fugitive criminal is not prosecuted within a specified time limit, he would be returned to the country which had surrendered him.

25. Clause 25 (original clause 26).—The amendment made in this clause confers on the magistrate the same powers regarding bail as vest in the court of sessions under the Code of Criminal Procedure.

26. Clause 32 (New Clause).—The Committee feel that the provisions of clauses 29 and 31 should apply to every foreign State as well to a commonwealth country.

The new clause has accordingly been added.

27. Clause 34 (New Clause).—The new clause is consequential to an amendment accepted by the Committee to the definition of "commonwealth country" in clause 2 and is of a drafting nature.

28. Clause 35 (original clause 33).—The Committee consider that all notifications should be placed before Parliament.

The clause has been amended accordingly.

29. First Schedule.—The Committee have omitted Federation of Rhodesia and Nayasaland from the Schedule.

30. Second Schedule (original Second and Third Schedules).—The Committee feel that the list of offences contained in the Second Schedule should apply to a foreign State as well a commonwealth country and accordingly they have omitted the Third Schedule. They further feel that offences committed in the air should also be enumerated in the Second Schedule and that piracy and treason need not be enumerated as extradition offences.

The Schedule has been revised accordingly.

31. The Joint Committee recommend that the Bill, as amended, be passed.

NEW DELHI:
The 29th November 1961.

HUKAM SINGH,
Chairman
Joint Committee.

Whenever any person accused or convicted of an offence, which, if committed in India would be an extradition offence, is surrendered or returned by a foreign State or commonwealth country, that person shall not, until he has been restored or has had an opportunity of returning to that State or country, be tried in India for an offence committed prior to the surrender or return, other than the extradition offence proved by the facts on which the surrender or return is based.

two months after such committal, the High Court, upon application

35 (f) the form and manner in which or the channel through which a magistrate may be required to make his report to the Central Government under this Act;
